

LIBRARY WEEKLY NEWS

During these difficult times, I thought it might be useful to send out ideas relating to reading for you and your children to enjoy at home.

Some of your children have already taken books home to kindly write book reviews on for me; these are for both websites and publishers. I would still love to receive these from you, so if you could please email them to me at a.kent@fourlanes-jun.hants.sch.uk that would be fantastic.

In addition to this, should any other children read a book that they have enjoyed and would like to share their own reviews, I would love to see these too.

The questions to think about when writing a review are:

What was the book about/storyline? (no spoilers though)

What did you enjoy most about the book?

How did it make you feel?

Would you recommend the book to others, if so who (age group)?

How many stars out of 5 would you rate it?

RECENT BOOK REVIEWS:

Troofriend is about Sarah and her Troofriend 560 Mark IV (Ivy). Troofriends are robots designed to be the perfect friend but when they start to develop human-like feelings and are being sent back - can this girl and android duo stay together through it all? I enjoyed this book because it is different and exciting. It has lots of likeable characters and an interesting storyline, with lots of plot twists. (Imogen, Year 5)

The story is about a cat named Tagg and he is in a secret club of super cats which fight crime. They have to fight against the scariest villain cat of all... Maximus Fang. My favourite part was all of it! I would recommend this book to children aged 5+, as it would be tricky for under 5's to understand. (Charlotte, Year 3)
