

LIBRARY WEEKLY NEWS

Hello again, I hope you have had the opportunity to read together and escape this difficult situation we find ourselves in.

Please remember:

Thank you to the children who have already emailed their fantastic reviews to me. These have been sent off to the publisher or put on TOPPSTA. I would still love to receive more reviews from you, especially those children who agreed to do book reviews before school closed.

Please send these to me at a.kent@fourlanes-jun.hants.sch.uk. They can be sent as photos, scanned documents, word documents or any other format that will email to me.

The questions to think about when writing a review are:

What was the book about/storyline? (no spoilers though)

What did you enjoy most about the book?

How did it make you feel?

Would you recommend the book to others, if so who (age group)?

How many stars out of 5 would you rate it?

More Reading Resources:

eBooks:

Thank you to those parents who have chosen to take advantage of the eBooks available to Four Lanes Junior School via <https://fourlanesjun-hantssls.wheelers.co/> If your child needs help find suitable resources, please contact me. Alternatively, if you have not yet used this service, please contact me a.kent@fourlanes-jun.hants.sch.uk for a login and password.

Many authors & publishers are trying to assist parents with access to books & reading/writing/illustrating – so here are a few:

Nosy Crow -author readings: https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLq4R6piMoBTt_HKegY3jDUCsGq1aOviZL

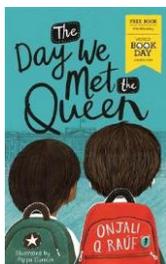

Authorfy -10 minute challenges:

<https://authorfy.com/10minutechallenges/>

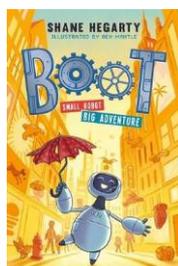

World Book Day Illustrator Rob Biddulph has created drawing classes which are fun for the whole family:

<http://www.robbiddulph.com/draw-with-rob>

RECENT BOOK REVIEWS:

I enjoyed this book immensely; it is an amazing mix of action and dialogue which fits with the first book very well. It is about a boy called Ahmet and his friends, as well as a bully they call Brendan-the-Bully. Brendan-the-Bully ruins the assembly Ahmet and his friends are to give, but they still go to meet the Queen. I think the best part of the story is when they have too many questions. I would recommend this book to children aged 5-12 years and I would give it 4 out of 5 stars, as it is very short and ends very quickly. (Chloe, year 5)

I liked this book because it was an adventure story about finding your way back home. It was about a robot called Boot and he woke up with only 2 and a half memories. The best part was the ending, where Boot found happiness. The story made me feel happy as they used teamwork and co-operation. I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys adventures. (Hollie, year 4)